

Privacy Notice

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Please read this notice carefully to understand what Habitat for Humanity of Greater Sacramento does with your personal information.

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms;
- Information about your transactions with us or others; and
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency.

We may disclose the following kinds of nonpublic personal information about you:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, assets, income, etc.
- Information about your transactions with us or others such as your loan balance, payment history, etc.; and
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency such as your creditworthiness and credit history.

All financial companies need to share customer’s personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons HfHGS chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

At Habitat for Humanity of Greater Sacramento, we are committed to keeping your information private. We recognize the importance applicants, program families, tenants, and homeowners place on the privacy and confidentiality of their information. While new technologies allow us to more efficiently serve our customers, we are committed to maintaining privacy standards that are synonymous with our established and trusted name.

When collecting, storing, and retrieving applicant, program family, and homeowner data—such as tax returns, pay stubs, credit reports, employment verifications and payment history—internal controls are maintained throughout the process to ensure security and confidentiality.

Habitat for Humanity of Greater Sacramento employees and volunteers are subject to a written policy regarding confidentiality, and access to applicant data is restricted to staff and volunteers on an as-needed basis. Information is used for lawful business purposes and is never shared with third parties without your consent, except as permitted by law. As permitted by law, we may disclose nonpublic personal information about you to the following types of third parties:

- Financial service providers, such as mortgage servicing agents;
- Nonprofit organizations, government entities, or other subsidy providers.

If you prefer that we do not disclose nonpublic personal information about you to nonaffiliated third parties, you may opt out of those disclosures; that is, you may direct us not to make those disclosures (other than disclosures permitted by law). If you wish to opt out of disclosures to nonaffiliated third parties, you may contact Habitat for Humanity of Greater Sacramento's Homeowner Services Manager, Rochelle Roberts, at rroberts@habitatgreatersac.org 916-440-1215 x1101.
